

Writing Curriculum (including Speaking and Listening)

Intent

At Langford Budville C of E Primary School, we believe that writing is a key skill for life and that is why it features across all the subjects taught at Langford Budville. Our aim is to provide children with key transferrable writing skills to build on year on year, that can be used throughout each phase of their education and prepare them for the future.

Teaching children to write for a range of purposes and audiences can be very exciting, especially when we use a range of engaging hooks to capture their imagination. We aim to provide the children with varied reasons for writing and believe that this not only produces higher quality writing, but also allows our learners to apply their skills to a range of different contexts. We write across all subject areas, which gives children many purposeful writing opportunities.

Oracy is prioritised in our writing curriculum in order to build vocabulary for all learners and increase understanding of more complex texts used across our curriculum. Discussion, questioning and learning texts with actions all increase understanding and prepare our children with the tools they need in order to be successful in their writing. Our aim is for ALL learners to achieve their full potential in writing and we are committed to providing the scaffolds and challenge needed in order for our children to achieve this.

Implement

We use Talk4Writing techniques, which encourage the use of high quality vocabulary and oral practice. The processes of Imitate, Innovate, Invent are used across the school with younger children focusing on imitate and simple innovations, building upon this year on year. Classes use story mapping and boxing up for narratives and toolkits and boxing up for non-fiction units. Year groups work on specific features outlined by Pie Corbett (Appendix 1).

A range of writing genres and audience are taught with a mixture of poetry, fiction and non-fiction through each year.

Each unit of writing will have a hook such as a piece of text, an object, a piece of music or a film clip.

Regular modelling of writing includes focus features to include grammar or punctuation.

Toolkits will be used in each unit of writing to emphasis key features for the genre.

Spelling

In Key Stage 1 we follow the phonics programme to structure our spelling programme. In Key Stage 2, we follow Andrew Brodie's spelling scheme which has a range of resources to support lesson activities around rules and patterns. In addition, spelling appropriate to our Science, Geography and History work will be included from time to time.

Spelling is taught each week across the school.

Grammar & Punctuation

Grammar and punctuation will be built into each unit of work. Coverage will be ensured through regular assessments using Somerset Literacy Network writing framework.

Aspects of KS1 grammar and punctuation will also be taught through Read Write Inc.

Handwriting

Handwriting is modelled throughout the school and across the curriculum. KS2 will use the pen pal progression to help all children to consistently produce work in all subjects that is fluent and legible. When this is the case children will be given a pen license.

Handwriting interventions take place in KS2 where necessary.

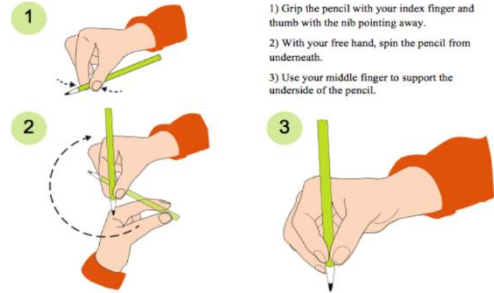

Fine motor interventions take place in KS1 where necessary.

KS1 will follow the Read Write Inc handwriting (see Phonics Curriculum).

From EYFS children will be encouraged to use the correct pencil grip and be supported to use the correct sitting position. EYFS children will be provided with chunky pencils to support this.

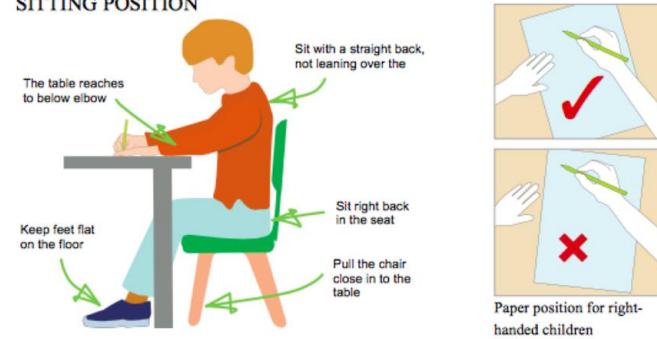

THE TRIPOD PENCIL GRIP

Both right and left handed children should be encouraged to use the tripod grip which allows the pen/pencil to be held securely whilst allowing controlled movements of the pen/pencil nib.

Pupils should be taught to sit correctly at a table, holding a pencil comfortably and correctly.

SITTING POSITION

Editing

Purple pens are used by children to edit their work in KS2.

KS1 will develop editing skills in Year 1 and Year 2.

Assessment

Class teachers will internally moderate 8 children's books each term.

The school will seek opportunities as a cluster and as part of the Trust to externally moderate work in Y2 and Y6 each year.

Teachers will judge each child's performance in writing at the end of each term as part of our assessment week.

Children will have a weekly spelling test as part of their homework.

Impact

Assessment in writing is ongoing as teachers carry out in-depth assessment of children’s writing at the end of each unit, and highlight the age-related outcomes that have been achieved. Progress across classes is closely monitored by the subject leader and senior leadership team. Monitoring will include: regular book looks, lesson observations, gathering evidence of good practice, pupil voice interviews, looking at data and regular learning walks.
